Submitting Your Application Form

This form can either be printed, completed and posted to the Membership Secretary or it can be downloaded, completed and emailed to the Membership Secretary.

Please post your application to: SSC Membership Secretary, 45 Hadham road, Bishops Stortford, Herts CM23 2QU

Please Email your application to: membership.southwoldsc@gmail.com

What Next?

Once your application and the correct fees have been received and provided that your application has been approved, you will receive a welcome pack in the post containing your membership card, a copy of the 2018 programme along with any boat parking stickers, door codes and general operating procedures. Your email address will be added to our mailing list. Then it's time to have some fun!

Additional

The ethos of the club is one of self help and the facilities and social activities that we enjoy at the Sailing Club have come about as a result of our members personal efforts. You too may be asked to contribute some of your time, effort and skill, if required to help in some way.

If you require any further information you can contact the Membership Secretary, any member of the committee or simply look at our website: www.southwoldsc.org

Data Protection

It is implicit in accepting an offer of membership that applicants agree that the details provided by them can be held on computer for the club's administrative purposes.

Thank you for completing this application form.
