Additional

The ethos of the club is one of self help and the facilities and social activities that we enjoy at the Sailing Club have come about as a result of our members personal efforts. You too may be asked to contribute some of your time, effort and skill, if required to help in some way.

If you require any further information you can contact the Membership Secretary, any member of the committee or simply look at our website: www.southwoldsc.org

Data Protection

It is implicit in accepting an offer of membership that applicants agree that the details provided by them can be held on computer for the club's administrative purposes.

Thank you for completing this application form.
